

French

EYFS
Year 1
Year 2
Year 3	Greetings	Adjectives of colour, size and shape	Playground games – numbers and age	The classroom
	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help.	Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they	Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases. Children will write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create

		reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases. Children will present ideas and information orally to a range of audience. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	are reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language.	new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally and in writing. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.
Year 4	Portraits	Clothes	Numbers, calendars and birthdays	Food
	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help.	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language.	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help.	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into

	Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally* and in writing. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally and in writing. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases. Children will present ideas and information orally to a range of audience. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary.	familiar written material, including through using a dictionary.
Year 5	Animals and body parts	Shopping	Verbs in a week	Family
	Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases.	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are	Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases. Children will appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words	Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases.

	Children will present ideas and information orally to a range of audiences. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally and in writing. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases. Children will present ideas and information orally to a range of audiences. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally and in writing. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	Children will present ideas and information orally to a range of audiences. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally and in writing. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.
Year 6	Sport and the Olympics	Homes	Holidays	Towns
	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding.	Children will listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express

	opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words. Children will engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are reading aloud or using familiar words and phrases. Children will present ideas and information orally to a range of audience. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally* and in writing.	Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will present ideas and information orally to a range of audience. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will describe people, places, things and actions orally* and in writing. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help. Children will speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures. Children will read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing. Children will broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Children will write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Children will understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.
--	---	--	--	--